

Advertisement: Freelance Article writers

Qualification

A degree or national diploma is crucial. Your degree will demonstrate your creativity, research, writing and communication of ideas in clear English. In addition to writing, you should have some experience of writing short stories, poetry, drama and/or novels.

Other major requirements are:

- Communication skills in English.
- Public relations.
- Journalism.
- Additionally, a graduate degree in Creative writing, Public relations or English is ideal, especially if English is not your first language.

Job Description:

- Developing subject ideas, drawing on personal interest and topical issues.
- Researching material by using the internet, personal interviews and other methods. Writing and rewriting material, often many times, to achieve the desired effects.
- Submitting commissioned material in the style required and to deadline.
- Receiving feedback and criticism, and revising work as a result.
- Develop topics around:

1. Music
2. Arts
3. Culture
4. Heritage
5. Film/film making
6. Poetry
7. Photography
8. Comedy
9. Fashion
10. Book review/authors.
11. Any other related topics.

All enquiries and CVs should be forwarded to lyricsmagazine@webmail.co.za.

Salary scale: Freelance rates apply.